Discovering Play, presented at a Level One level, introduces the importance of play and Playwork along with some practical elements.

Discovering Play aims to develop individuals skills to support the facilitation and development of good play environments where children can thrive.

Whether this is in the home, school, parks, sports or community settings.

Upon successful completion participants will be awarded an NOCN Level 1 Award in Skills for Employment, Training and Personal Development

Qualification No: 601/0948/8

WHAT HAVE LEARNERS SAID?

"This course will change your mindset because when you thought you were joining in, you were actually interfering!

Children are amazing and this approach allows them to be all the amazing they can be!"

TRACY BOTHAMLEY

PLAYWORKER OUGHTIBRIDGE PRIMARY SCHOOL

'Doing the course has given me a new perspective as to how children play, and has now opened my eyes in their world. Watching the children play and develop has made me want to pursue the Playworker courses further, hence now starting the level 3. The courses are amazing and you will learn so much. It will change the way you engage and play with children for the better'

DIANE JONES
